Course on multilateral system begins

A two-month certificate course on "the Multilateral System and its Impact on Bangladesh" began in the North South University auditorium in Dhaka on Monday, reports BSS.

Reaz Rahman, Advisor of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, inaugurated the course, jointly organised by Bangladesh Enterprise Institute (BEI) and North South University (NSU), said a press release.

The adviser in the opening session presented the keynote paper on "The Future of the Multilateral System in the Changing World".

Farooq Sobhan, President, Bangladesh Enterprise Institute (BEI), chaired the inaugural session, while Prof Hafiz G.A. Siddiqi, Vice-chancellor, North South University, delivered the welcome speech.
