BEI workshop on corporate governance

Bangladesh Enterprise Institute (BEI) in collaboration with the Association of Management Development Institutions of Bangladesh (AMDIB) organised a day-long workshop on corporate governance (CG) for all AMDIB members in Dhaka yesterday.

The workshop was inaugurated by Prof M Asaduzzaman, chairman of the University Grants Commission (UGC), at the BEI conference room, says a press release.

AMDIB members include Institute of Business Administration (IBA), North South University, East West University, Academy of Planning and Development, Janata Bank Training Institute and Bangladesh Bank Training Academy among other leading business schools and management development institutions in Bangladesh.

Farooq Sobhan, president of BEI, Dr Fakhruddin Ahmed, managing director of the PKSF, and Iftekhar Ghani Chowdhury, director of IBA and president of the AMDIB chaired the sessions of the workshop.

Speakers at the workshop include Mirza Azizul Islam, chairman of Sonali Bank, Anis A Khan, CEO and Managing Director of IDLC, Nihad Kabir, advocate of Supreme Court, and Adeb Khan, partner, Rahman Rahman Huq/KPMG.

Mirza Azizul Islam said there has been significant improvement in the CG status in Bangladesh due to the stringent control and monitoring mechanisms of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
